All online payments are processed through secure and encrypted payment gateways.

---

5. Payment Processing and Issues

Donors are responsible for ensuring the accuracy of payment details provided during the transaction.

In case of payment failure:

- Donors may retry the transaction
- If funds are deducted without confirmation, donors should contact support with transaction details

The organization is not responsible for delays or failures caused by third-party payment providers.

6. Donation Receipts

A receipt will be issued for all successful donations and sent to the donor's registered email address.

Donors are responsible for maintaining copies of receipts for their records.

7. Tax Compliance

Donations may be eligible for tax deductions under applicable government regulations.

Eligibility for tax benefits depends on:

- Compliance with statutory requirements
- Availability of required documentation
- Approval status of the organization

The organization:

- Does not guarantee eligibility for tax deductions
- Is not liable for donations that do not qualify for tax exemptions or reductions
- Advises donors to consult appropriate government authorities or qualified tax professionals prior to making a donation

---

8. Campaign Designation and Fund Allocation

Donors may choose to support specific campaigns or causes when such options are available.

If a designated campaign meets or exceeds its funding requirements, the organization reserves the right to redirect funds to similar initiatives or areas of greatest need, consistent with its mission.

9. Refund Policy

Donations are generally non-refundable.

Refund requests may be considered under exceptional circumstances, including:

- Accidental transactions
- Duplicate payments
- Technical errors

All refund requests are subject to review and approval by the organization.

10. Privacy and Data Protection

Personal information collected during the donation process will be used solely for:

- Processing donations
- Issuing receipts
- Legal and compliance requirements
- Organizational communication

The organization will not sell or share donor information without consent, except where required by law.

---

11. Communication with Donors

Donors may receive communications related to:

- Program updates and impact reports
- Organizational activities
- Future fundraising initiatives

Donors may opt out of non-essential communications at any time.

---
